MEMORANDUM FOR: Office of Legislative Counsel

STATINTL FROM:

[REDACTED]
National Intelligence Officer for China

SUBJECT: Participation on a Panel on China

1. On 14 October Bill Whitson, an old friend who currently works for Congressional Research Service, phoned me and asked me to participate in a three-man panel on 22 October concerned with current events in China. Whitson will be one panel member and the other will probably be chosen from academia. The audience will consist of Congressional staffers, academics, think tankers and a sprinkling of government officials. It will be held at the Library of Congress and will last about two hours.

2. I have agreed to participate and will confine my remarks to unclassified material.

I assume [ ] cleared his participation in this panel discussion on China with you. It strikes me that there are all kinds of possibilities for trouble in such a session such as misquotes, etc. but that is not my judgment to make.
